we bring people together

In this fast-paced, high-tech world that we live in, one thing is still constant – your best asset will always be your people. That is why employing the right person for the job can spell the difference between the failure and success of your business. This makes the search for talents a critical step in the growth of your enterprise, one that requires the expertise of professionals who possess the know-how and the resource to get you exactly what you need.

We at NexC have the team and the network that will make that search a rewarding one. What's more, we work in an environment based on TRUST – an important quality in an industry that functions as a community and thrives in its diversity.

“At NexC, we don’t build portfolios - we build relationships. We consider each client a partner that we represent, and each project an opportunity to earn trust and satisfaction.”

recruitment services

Choosing the right person for the job requires both time and experience. But the rigors of global recruitment means you cannot hire a prospective candidate by looking at work experience alone. With our expertise, you improve your chances of getting 'that' right person. Our various services can address your company's different hiring requirements:

Executive Search

NexC's team of internationally experienced hospitality professionals uses modern recruitment procedures based on the standard of trust and dependability. Whatever your specific needs, with our extensive network, you can rest assured that we will find the person, who is best suited for the position. We provide:

- A dedicated recruitment manager and career development team
- Complete contact information of pre-selected individuals
- The opportunity to immediately review and evaluate each candidate
- Open channels of communication
- Provisions for an independent third party interviewer
- Assistance in contract negotiations and relocation matters
- Very competitive recruitment fees
- Follow-up care
- Overall satisfaction

Specialist for Lease

Our unique Specialist for Lease Service is a response to our clients' need for new and innovative ways of staff sourcing. You can tap the services of highly trained and experienced individuals for short-term projects like pre-openings, peak season assignments and special events – whenever and wherever you need them. We guarantee:

- The best specialist for the assignment
- Total flexibility in terms of project duration
- Diversity and additional value for your establishment
- A ready solution for emergency situations
- Highly cost-effective manpower sourcing

Internships and Trainees

- Access to a multinational group of highly motivated, young professionals
- Dynamic career opportunities for candidates who want further advancement in the industry
- Diversity to your team and operations
- An opportunity to build a solid group of professionals trained in your company's philosophy
- A rotating supply of candidates

our team

We have assembled a talented and professional recruitment team that can readily answer the needs of both employers and prospective employees.

Our career development team and recruitment managers have had ample multinational experience and knowledge in the hospitality industry. They understand the uniqueness of each individual career search and they work together to give you the results you need. You will be assured of personal assistance, all the way.

A. Recruitment

The Executive Search Team will:

NexC[®]

About NexC

Since its inception in 1995, NexC has been in the forefront of establishing a global hospitality communications network that caters to the specific needs and requirements of the hospitality, travel trade and tourism industries, as well as educational institutions.

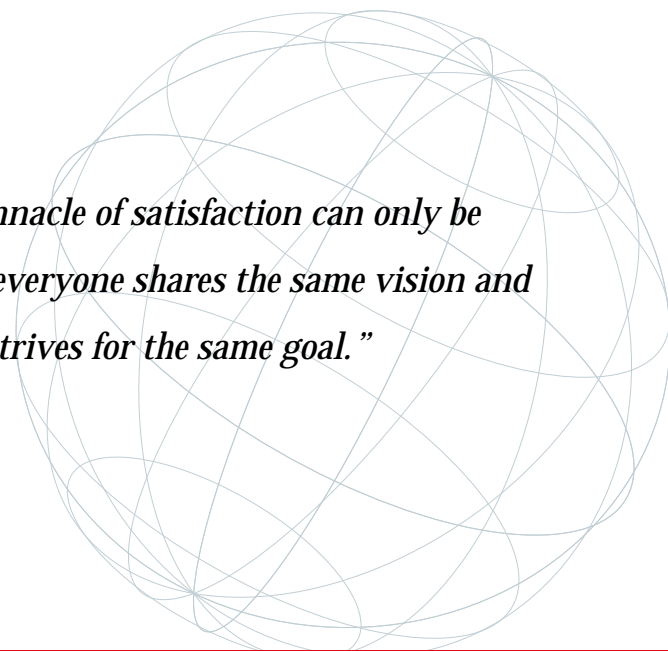

We offer a common virtual platform where individuals can interact dynamically and exchange professional and industry information, ideas and services for the enhancement of careers or businesses.

NexC's suite of services and features are geared towards nurturing people-to-people relations. Our business is fueled by the desire to create a universal arena for professional networking that has no boundaries, an arena that we call the NexClub.

NexC... beyond time zones, truly global.

“The pinnacle of satisfaction can only be achieved if everyone shares the same vision and strives for the same goal.”
